SPECIAL NOTICE: A NEW PUBLICATION POLICY FOR THE JOHN MUIR PAPERS

(Editor's Note: For the past several years, requests to publish material from the hand of John Muir or contained in the Muir collection at the University of the Pacific have been held up by the owners of the literary rights pending clarification of the copyright status. These legal questions have now been resolved and the Muir-Hanna Trust has formulated a new publication policy. Because of the importance of this breakthrough, we have reprinted, in its entirety, the form to be used hereafter in requesting permission to publish Muir material.)

3. Publication fees for non-commercial users may be reduced or waived at the discretion of the literary or property owners who reserve the right to judge whether a proposed publication is commercial in nature.
4. The Muir-Hanna Trust or its agents reserve the right to refuse to reproduce materials from the John Muir Papers if the repository staff deems it advisable for document conservation or other reasons.
